Classroom Chants We Can Say

Original short chants for greeting, weather, and tidy-up time.

1 Cut along the dashed lines. Keep one chant on each card.

HELLO TIME

Hello, friends, we're here today.
Wave your hands and say, "Hello!"
Hello, friends, let's start to play.
Sit down gently — here we go.

WEATHER LOOK

Look outside, what do you see?
Sunny, cloudy, windy, rainy.
Look outside, now tell me, please:
What is the weather? Tell me, tell me.

TIDY UP

Tidy up, tidy up, books in the box.
Tidy up, tidy up, coats on the hooks.
Tidy up, tidy up, sit in your spot.
We are ready — that was a lot!

GOODBYE TIME

Goodbye, friends, we had a good day.
Wave your hands and say, "Goodbye!"
Goodbye, friends, we'll see you soon.
Walk carefully — see you this afternoon.

FOR TEACHERS & PARENTS

Skill: Classroom routine language and choral speaking.
Goal: Child joins in a short, repeated chant and begins to say key phrases independently.
Tip: These are original classroom chants, written for teachers to say aloud. Start with Hello Time only.
